

ACTIONAID MEGARAID 2011

Bring your best raiders down to London to compete with other RAGs to see who can relieve those wealthy bankers of the most cash in one day!

We've bagged the whole of the City of London, including St Paul's cathedral, Liverpool Street station and London Bridge on Friday 25th February 2011. Spend the day working the pavements to raise money for ActionAid, then celebrate into the night as we throw you a Bollocks to Poverty party to say thanks.

Thursday 24th February

Collection sites: Check out the location map to see some of the amazing sites up for grabs. The City of London is where the money is, you will be tripping over hedge fund managers celebrating the end of the working week and looking to spend their pay packets. How much of their bonus can you persuade them to hand over to a great cause?

Collection sites will be allocated on arrival.

Prizes: We know it's really all about the glory, but we thought you might also like four tickets for the London Eye, two guaranteed places at a summer festival with the Bollocks to Poverty crew and a selection of music CDs. All to the RAG that collects the most per head.

Costs: We will cover the cost of accommodation and food for all raggies, plus refund your travel expenses by up to 10% of your collection total. All we ask is a £5 deposit for each collector, fully refunded on arrival. And bring proof of travel costs.

Sign up: Register your RAG by calling Jenny on 0203 122 0667 or email events@actionaid.org with an idea of how many people you are bringing. We will then send you all the extra information you need.

We look forward to welcoming you all to London!
