

Get creative and make your mark for children in Africa

ActionAid has launched the Make Your Mark campaign to find 1,000 people in the West Country to sponsor 1,000 children in Africa and all around the world. To build awareness of the campaign we're creating a giant collage of a young girl called Enid, to be unveiled in the centre of Bristol on June 1, to mark International Children's Day. And you can be part of it!

Just draw a self-portrait on the page opposite and return it to us by 5pm on Monday 17 May.

Artist's details

Every artist should sign their work. Please complete your details so we can show you the completed mural and keep you up to date with the campaign.
