

Girls with ActionAid Bangladesh's Happy Home project receive counselling, group therapy, education, interview preparation and workshops to help them build resilience. They learn employment skills as well, in a safe and nurturing environment. Girls here have flourished, with 11 now in part-time jobs, gaining valuable work experience and moving closer to financial independence.

act:onaid

RUN FOR RIGHTS